

3 Things Every Young Leader Should Know

Lead early. Lead smart. Lead with impact.

Why This Matters?

Being a leader isn't about age or title.

It's about:

- Vision
- Influence
- Action

Start leading before you're told to.

Thing #1

You Won't Have All the Answers (And That's Okay)

Leadership isn't about knowing everything.
It's about asking better questions.

A photograph of two young women with long dark hair sitting at a desk. The woman on the left is wearing a blue denim shirt over a white top and is smiling while looking at a laptop. The woman on the right is wearing a yellow sweater and is also smiling, looking at the laptop. They appear to be in a collaborative work environment.

Say this more often:
Let's figure it out—together.

Collaboration > Control.

Thing #2

People Follow Trust, Not Power

You can't demand respect. You must earn it.

- Be consistent
- Be transparent
- Be accountable

Lead by example, not instruction.

Thing #3

Leadership = Growth Mindset

You'll fail. You'll doubt. You'll be uncomfortable.
Good. That's where growth lives.

- Keep learning.
- Keep evolving.
- Stay curious.

Great leaders are great learners.

Recap

- You don't need all the answers.
- Earn trust, don't demand it.
- Growth mindset is non-negotiable.

Start where you are.
Lead how you wish others would.
